A. Committee Reports

1. Executive Committee: Senator Curry sent an email to the Senate proposing a change in the Faculty Senate meeting schedule. Senate Curry asked what the Senate’s opinion of the schedule was. Senator Snyder then asked how voting works for Senate members that are not present. Senator Curry explained that they will be unable to vote. She went onto say that April 15th will be Faculty Senate’s last meeting of the semester. Additionally, the Retirement Reception will be held Thursday April 3rd. Faculty Senate is co-sponsoring it with UPI. The Senate was asked to please make every effort to be there to honor our retiring faculty. Provost Lord asked the Senate to review the IGPs for Booth Library. Senator Coit asked a question on Policy 55 regarding publications as well as policy 5 regarding research materials. Provost Lord said that these IGPs have been worked on for the last two years and reflect the current practices of the Library. Senator Brownson offered explanations to Senator Coit’s questions, but he felt that the terms were vague. Senator Brownson provided a specific example regarding the IGPs in question. The priority is for undergraduate needs to be met first, this meets a broader audience. Sometimes it is an issue of budget, she explained. Provost Lord commented that the focus is on whether or not it has broad or narrow use for the institution. Senator Murray then asked about foreign films. Senator Brownson said that would apply to the English department. Senator Curry then said that she attended the CUPB meeting on Friday and that President Perry has reconvened a committee on campus parking. Dr. Perry also talked a little bit about his visit to the Appropriations committee of the General Assembly in Springfield. There is a written statement from President Perry on his website.

2. Nominations Committee: Senator Pommier provided the Senate with a handout on nominations for committees. There are two Senator’s names to be submitted for the ACA committee; they are Senator John Stimac and Senator Joy Russell.

3. Elections Committee: Senator Brownson handed out the election statistics and there was a 43.9 percent voting rate. She commented that it was very easy to vote and that we should have had a better turnout. Three positions are still undecided. Senator Stimac said we must agree to the random draw. Senator Curry asked to suspend the by-laws and vote for one of the positions. The motion was that the Senate suspend the by-laws so that they could propose a drawing of names from a hat provided that is approved by the candidates. Motion (Stimac/Sinclair) to suspend by-laws: Yes: Brownson, Coit, Curry, Dao, Fischer, Joyce, Marshall, Murray, Pommier and Snyder. Motion carried. Senator Curry said that the Senate will draw names at the next meeting. Senator Brownson then moved that the Senate vote (Fischer/Stimac) to ratify the elections. Yes: Brownson, Coit, Curry, Dao, Fischer, Joyce, Marshall, Murray, Pommier and Snyder. Motion carried. Senator Brownson then said that she wrote a letter to Chat Chatterji, from ITS, to thank him for the successful spring elections.

4. Faculty – Student Relations Committee: The student initiative on increasing the diversity requirement in the general education curriculum is headed to CAA. Senator Stimac then inquired how it could have gone to CAA if the student government did not approve it. Provost Lord said that general education requirements can go before CAA without approval of all academic units. He then said that, in regard the foreign language proposal, it has gone to all Administration Councils and will go before CAA. It will most likely extend beyond one meeting.

5. Faculty – Staff Relations Committee: No report.

7. Faculty Forum Committee: No report.
8. Awards Committee: Distinguished Faculty Award recipient will be announced at the next Senate meeting.

9. Other Reports
   a) Provost’s Report: Provost Lord said that there is a BOT meeting on April 21st. This is the meeting at which tenure decisions are taken to the board. The open session begins at 1 p.m. Senate appropriation hearings will be on Thursday at 9 a.m.; President Perry and Provost Lord will be attending. The state budget is $750 million in the hole. EIU has signed a contract to be part of iTunes University. Vice President Nilsen has convened an ad hoc steering committee to determine the content of what would appear on the iTunes site. Senator Stimac added that there is a lot of material that could appear on the site. It is another great way to showcase the University. Individuals can Google iTunes University to see the exciting possibilities. Senator Snyder then asked Provost Lord if there has been any feedback in regards to Alert EIU. Provost Lord replied that there are routine tests conducted and that he has not received any feedback at this time.

V. New Business
   A. Jill Nilsen, Vice President for External Relations. Nilsen stated that they have a staff nearly 50 individuals and that they have a budget of $2.5 million. They deal with things in regard to Alumni Relations, the Board of Trustees, the Office of Development, Planning and Institutional Studies, University Communications and WEIU Radio and TV.
   B. Steve Rich, Alumni Services in regards to Outreach, Annual Fund and Banner. Rich stated that his office maintains contacts with alumni through a number of means including the Old Main Line, a monthly electronic newsletter, and 40 events reaching out to our alums. he Annual Fund last year raised over $270,000 and is on pace to achieve more this year. Senator Curry then inquired as to why that is. Rich responded that his office uses a number of means to reach out.
   C. Karla Evans, Office of Philanthropy. Evans stated that her office, with a staff of 10 people, is responsible for planned giving. The goal is to build EIU’s endowment and add donors.
   D. Dennis Roche, WEIU. Roche said that WEIU recently did a strategic plan---he then shared the mission statement. He said that WEIU is involved in student training; they have 20 employees, do community outreach and their mainstay is Ready to Read literacy effort, which teaches adults how to read to their children. WEIU is also a sustaining member of the methamphetamine coalition. They started a PBS membership which is now up to 200. WEIU is not 100% supported by EIU. They have to raise money through underwriting sales and other opportunities. Senator Curry said that WEIU has recently significantly increased its broadcast range, and asked about the challenges in doing that. Roche responded that it gives our students a lot more exposure; the opportunities are for the students because it brings more potential donors and businesses. WEIU is just starting to make in roads into Decatur, for example. They have a very small staff, so it is a challenge in that the opportunities are there. Senator Brownson then asked if Roche has thought of something such as a Friends board. Roche said that WEIU has an academic advisory board. The challenge is that if we bring in outside business people they would probably want more of a voice than the University would be willing to give them. Roche said that they are currently investigating such options. Senator Brownson then asked if WEIU is starting individual memberships and how one is able to contribute. Roche commented that it costs $35 a year for membership. WEIU would like not to interrupt programming and only do 20-30 seconds of asking for money; WEIU.net is the website address. WEIU just received a major award from the corporation for public broadcasting. Senator Curry asked how programming decisions are made. Roche said that he primarily makes the decisions. WEIU has gone from 5,000 viewers per week to 25,000. They have spent a lot of money on programming. Ten percent of the PBS stations are differentiated therefore it takes more engineering to put a schedule together. WEIU’s schedule is much more powerful than that of its competitors. Senator Brownson then commented that a few years ago, EIU had a controversy with the radio station. Roche said that it is dictated by the community in terms of requests. WEIU has a dual mission to community and to the University; in order to keep your license you have to reach the community. WEIU have consistently been the no. 2 radio station for Coles County area and WEIU students are most likely to get jobs right after graduation.

E. Stacia Lynch, Director of University Marketing Communications on undergraduate and graduate recruiting, philanthropy and WEIU. Lynch said that EIU has won numerous awards. The CASE International Silver Award, for instance, is for excellence in visual print design. EIU also won an award for environmental graphics. EIU is starting to talk to students who will serve as our models for the marketing materials. They hope to market the academics of EIU as well as make EIU appealing to high school age individuals. The President has talked about the importance of marketing and we will have a consultant coming in to talk to us about how we might improve our materials. Lynch went on to say that EIU has joined enrollment management. Senator Pommier then asked when Faculty Senate should bring Lynch back to speak to the Senate. Lynch suggested the fall semester. Senator Curry commented that not all people viewing EIU’s website are high school students. Lynch said 95 percent of prospective students see EIU on the website. She asked for faculty to contact her with stories about what they or their students are doing. Senator Curry said the website does not really show that. Lynch said that they do not have a web staff and that their website is old and that they will have a redesign in the fall, with more “real estate” on the front page. Currently Athletics and the Library get the most hits. Senator Coit then asked why if students are the primary target, University Marketing Communications does not have a web staff. Lynch replied that they are in the process of trying to alleviate that problem.

F. Julia Abel, Director of Planning and Institutional Studies. Abel has a staff of four and they report the external data to the Feds and IBHE. They coordinate the planning processes—for example for the new president. They also track the legislative bills and have a link where one can track their status. Abel mentioned that commencement marks the point when students graduate and become alumni.
Senator Stimac asked who would be Abel’s replacement when she retires. Abel replied that she has a competent staff and that someone will take over what she does. Senator Curry then asked about current legislation. Nilsen said that her office is currently tracking 337 bills, including a bill that would require Illinois universities to regard ASL as a foreign language; EIU already does. They are also following a pension bill, a procurement bill and one in housing which has to do with sprinkler systems in housing units. Senator Murray said that she wants to offer kudos to Lynch’s office for all they do. Senator Curry asked what the possibility is that the Illinois constitution is going to open up. Nilsen responded that it will be put on the ballot in November. There is increased interest for opening the constitution and once it is open then anything in it is open to change. It would not be in the best interest of EIU to open the constitution, particularly because of the possible changes to our pension system.

VII. Adjournment at 4:00 p.m.

Future Agenda Items: campus climate survey; construction updates; long-range planning; faculty handbook

Thank you to Jill Nilsen: Vice President for External Relations, Steve Rich: Alumni Services, Karla Evans: Office of Philanthropy, Dennis Roche: WEIU, Stacia Lynch: Director of University Marketing Communications and Julia Abel: Director of Planning and Institutional Studies.

Respectfully submitted,
Jeanne Snyder, Recorder
