The following texts are used for English 2601:

ATTENDANCE: Plan to attend every class. You might glance at page 55 of the 2006-2007 catalog concerning this matter. Obviously, a student seldom does well in a course and never performs to his or her full potential when he or she cuts class frequently. For that reason, I have established the following attendance policy. For every five unexcused absences, your final grade will be lowered one letter grade. If you have ten unexcused absences, your final grade will be lowered two letter grades, etc. Late papers will be accepted (including reading check quizzes, exams, etc) only in cases of extreme emergency—severe illness, official university activity, or other urgent reasons.

DEPARTMENTAL STATEMENT OF PLAGIARISM: “Any teacher who discovers an act of plagiarism—‘the appropriation or imitation of the language, ideas, and/or thoughts of another author, and representation of them as one’s original work’ (Random House Dictionary of the English Language)—has the right and the responsibility to impose upon the guilty student an appropriate penalty up to and including immediate assignment of a grade of F for the course, and to report the incident to the Judicial Affairs Office.”
CELL PHONES: Please keep them turned off and out of sight during class. For obvious reasons, please do not consult a cell phone during an exam.

GRADING: There will be two one-hour exams, each worth 20 percent, frequent reading check quizzes worth ten percent, and a medium-length paper (6 to 8 pages of typewritten text, double spaced) worth 30 percent, due approximately 5 classes before the end of the semester. Of course, you are responsible for keeping up with reading and writing assignments, even if you are unable to attend class. In other words, a missed class is not a valid excuse for not being prepared on your return. Learn the assignment from a classmate or from your instructor. If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583) as soon as possible.

Areas of Interest for Paper Topics

Below you will find a list of areas of interest relevant to material studied in English 2601. Obviously, the list does not pretend to be an exhaustive one. As the semester progresses, I will suggest other topics to write about. Since the areas of interest are rather general, they will have to be restricted and focused according to your interests and findings. In other words, restriction of topic and construction of a thesis statement are your responsibilities. Of course, you are ENCOURAGED TO CREATE YOUR OWN TOPICS. All I ask is that you let me approve your topic several weeks before you actually start working on your essay. A brief talk with me may save you from later bitterness and gnashing of teeth.

The essay should be of medium length—6 to 8 pages of typewritten text, double spaced—essentially critical in nature. Needless to say, your paper must not be a mere rehash of information discussed in class. Because of the limited nature of our library’s resources, I am not requiring that you use secondary sources (articles in journals, chapters from books, information from web sites, etc.). However, in many cases, research and citation of secondary sources would inspire your own idea and lend support to your work. If you do decide to research your topic, remember to review the introductions to various authors and texts in Masterpieces. Our textbook also lists suggested readings. Furthermore, Masterpieces does offer a web site: http://www.wwnorton.com (the underlining is my own for emphasis) which may provide useful information. The best place to look would be the MLA Bibliography in Booth Library. This source is available electronically. Just click on Library Services, then on electric indexes, then literature; then scroll down to the MLA Bib and click.

Of course, whenever you receive this “extra help,” whether the ideas are paraphrased or copied word for word, you are required to document your sources appropriately. To “forget” to do so, as you know from English 1001G and 1002G, is grounds for failure on the paper and perhaps the course. The proper documentation form, the MLA Style Sheet, 6th Edition, is found in most college handbooks and also is available in our Writing Center, room 3110 Coleman Hall. The paper is due December 1. Essays will not be accepted after December 8.
