Spring 1-15-2015

EIU 4114G-001: London Society & Underworlds

Newton Key
Eastern Illinois University

Jad Smith

---

Follow this and additional works at: http://thekeep.eiu.edu/english_syllabi_spring2015
Part of the English Language and Literature Commons

---

Recommended Citation
http://thekeep.eiu.edu/english_syllabi_spring2015/89
Culture Matters: London Society & Underworlds before Jack the Ripper

The astonishing growth of London—virtually the largest city in Europe by 1700—brought luxuries and benefits. London’s growth also brought vices and raised modern questions about morality, poverty, and order. How did Londoners identify and try to solve conspiracy, clubbing, gang, and crime problems then, and how might we use our expertise drawn from any major or discipline to use or revise their ideas about urban issues now? This humanities senior seminar introduces the intellectual, cultural, economic, and especially social development in this metropolis a century before Jack the Ripper and before a unified police force, with a particular emphasis on crime in the 1600s and 1700s. The course is inter- or cross-

Available from Textbook Services:

- Additional readings (available as handouts or in EIU Online/Brightspace) disciplined both in the sources used—literary, legal, visual—and in the methods of analysis—literary, historical.

Unit I Mapping the Metropolis

"In a West end town a dead end world
The East end boys and West end girls."
("West End Girls," Pet Shop Boys)

How do we envision a city? How did pre-modern Londoners envision their city? How does the historian map London? How does literature map London?

week 1. Introducing London

  ("London’s Importance")
week 2. Mapping London

- Jan. 22. Hitchcock, ch. 1 ("Streets of London")

week 3. Visualizing London

- Jan. 27. Understanding Visual Culture (as assigned, see course site EIU Online)
- Jan. 29. Mapping London Project due

Unit II The Drama of Urban Crime

How does law enforcement differ between the early 18th and the early 21st centuries? What specific issues do crime and the “dark figure” (criminals for which we have no record) have for the student of an early modern metropolis such as London? What does literature tell us? What does art?

week 4. Visualizing Crime

- Feb. 2. Hogarth, in Damrosch et al. and elsewhere (as assigned), "Crime, Justice and Punishment: The Historical Background to the Proceedings of the Old Bailey"
- Feb. 4. Gay, The Beggar's Opera (1728), in Damrosch et al. (as assigned) week 5. The Drama of the Court and the Gallows

- Feb. 10. TBA
- Feb. 12. Gay, The Beggar's Opera, in Damrosch et al. (as assigned) week 6. The Mob, Riots, and Social Crime

- Feb. 17. Bucholz and Ward, ch. 7 ("Riot & Rebellion"); "Researching Crime"
- Feb. 19. Gay, The Beggar’s Opera, in Damrosch et al. (as assigned) week 7. Thieves and Thief-taking

- Feb. 24 The Beggar’s Opera and Its Time, in Damrosch et al. (as assigned)
- Feb. 26. Introduction to Mapping Criminal Case Histories Project; “How to Read an Old Bailey Trial”

http://ux1.eiu.edu/~nekey/syllabi/londonsociety.htm
week 8. Drama in the Long-18th Century

- March 3 TBA
- March 5. Urban Crime Drama Project due; Hitchcock, intro. & ch. 1

Daniel Defoe in the pillory

Unit III – London Criminal and Poor Underworlds

Who are the people on the margins and where are they? Do they affect history or are they affected by it? Beyond the poor and the street, this section examines bawdy houses (and the bawdy house riots of 1668), molly houses, coffee-houses, and clubs.

gallows ticket (1725)

week 9. Being Poor in London

- March 10.

http://uxl.eiu.edu/~nekey/syllabi/londonsociety.htm
Hitchcock, chs. 2-3; Bucholz & Ward, ch. 6
- March 12. Hitchcock, chs. 4-5

week 10. Narrating the London Poor
- March 24. Charity, TBA
- March 26. Hitchcock, ch. 10

Cries of London (18th cent. playing cards)

Charity girl and boy, Wall of St. John's School, Wapping (est. 1695) week 11. Londoners and Non-Londoners

- March 31. Wycherley, The Country Wife (1675), Damrosch et al. (as assigned)
- April 2. Wycherley, The Country Wife (1675), Damrosch et al. (as assigned)

William Hogarth, Moll Hackabout arrives in London (1731/32)

http://ux1.eiu.edu/~nekey/syllabi/londonsociety.htm
Crime

- April 7. TBA
- April 9. Women and Men, Manners and Marriage (newspapers, 1690s-1710s), in Damrosch et al. (as assigned)

Ned Ward, The CoffeeHous Mob (1710)

Week 13. Gendered Spaces

- April 14, 16. Defoe, Moll Flanders (excerpt); Defoe, Roxana, in Damrosch et al. (as assigned)

William Hogarth, The Fellow 'Prentices at their Looms (1747)

Unit IV - Final Projects

Manner of Execution at Tyburn (17th century) week 14. Past & Present; the Literary & the Historical

- April 21, 23. Readying Presentations (groups)

week 15. Getting Out the Word

- April 28, 30. Presentations

requirements, papers, and exams

office hours

last modified on January 17, 2015