I. Course Description
This course explores approaches to the teaching of literature in secondary schools. Interaction with secondary students will fulfill the 10 site-based clinical hours required for this course. Each member will develop a professional portfolio.

Texts:

Young Adult Titles:
Nye, Habibi.

Requirements: You must complete all parts of all assignments to receive credit for the class.

Attendance: Attendance is mandatory. If you have no option but to miss, 10 points will be deducted from your grade. Ten bonus points will be awarded for perfect attendance.

Students with Disabilities: If you have a documented disability and wish to receive academic accommodations, please contact the Coordinator of the Office of Disability Services (581-6583).

II. Course Objectives
Upon successful completion of this course you will:

a. Be aware of current theories in literature pedagogy.
b. Know a variety of strategies for involving students with literature.
e. Have a greater awareness of the role young adult literature can play in the classroom.
f. Have examined the ways theater arts can be integrated in exploring literature.
g. Have explored means of integrating the Language Arts.

III. Course Requirements
A. Response
1. Response journal—Respond to assigned and to self-selected readings in your response journal. (Do not read more than 20 pages before responding.) passages to which you refer. On Tuesday of each week e-mail your responses to me or submit on disk or hard copy.

2. Formative evaluation—Respond to peers' and secondary students' writing. Forward to me one sample essay with your responses from each set you receive and respond to. Document date, titles, authors, and nature of response.

B. Research projects

1. Independent project—Select an area of particular interest in literature pedagogy (i.e. censorship, journaling, enactment, literature circles, expanding the canon, integrating culturally diverse literature, high interest-low readability materials for at-risk readers, literacy, oral interpretation of literature). Read books or articles (200 pages min.) on the topic and respond in your journal as you read. Do not read farther than 20 pages without stopping to respond. [See attached recommended list. I have these texts and most are available in the library.] Prepare an essay on literature pedagogy integrating what you have learned from the assigned readings with what you have learned from this independent reading. Use MLA or APA form (3-page min.). Present the material orally (5-10 minutes).

2. Group project (Fall English Conference)—Select an area of literature pedagogy to research [see above suggested list]. Each group member research a strand (200 pages minimum) on the topic and respond in the professional journal. Then prepare a professional paper in MLA form on the issue or practice (Minimum 3 full pages). Meet with your group to discuss connections and contradictions in the reading. Then draft a proposal and organize a presentation for the conference, including a bibliography. Blend information from your research with assigned readings and the experiences you have had with students this semester to make an assertion. Allow 10-15 min. per speaker plus time to field questions.

C. Professional Portfolio

1. Essay on literature pedagogy (independent project)
2. Conference paper (group project)
3. Literary paper
4. Resume
5. Sample responses to student writing

IV. Evaluation

A. Course grade will be determined by the following:
