

The Arts

For many, the experience of receiving transformational touch leads to a rich deepening of the creative process. This area will highlight personal and group artistic expression related to touch in a multitude of forms from visual arts to poetry, dance, music and more.